

INDEX

INDEX

- Agricultural exports
 - as affected by the depression, 28
 - as affected by the World War, 28
 - from Colonial days to World War, 27-28
 - to Great Britain, decreased during present war, 118
- Agricultural policies
 - acreage adjustment, 29-30
 - as related to trade agreements program, 32-34
 - commodity loans, 30-31
 - export subsidies, 31-32
 - surplus removal operations, 31-32
- AKAGI, ROY H., Future of American Trade with Manchukuo, 138-143
- AMERICA'S INTERNATIONAL ACCOUNTS, Amos E. Taylor, 9-17
- AMERICAN FARMER LOOKS ABROAD, THE, L. A. Wheeler, 27-34
- AMERICAN TRADE AND JAPANESE AGGRESSION, T. A. Bisson, 123-129
- AMERICAN TRADE FACES BARRIERS ABROAD, Perry J. Stevenson, 51-57
- Argentine-United States controversy, 191-193
- Balance of international payments
 - as affected by world depression, 13-14
 - changes in, during present war compared with World War, 10
 - current trends in, 16-17
 - history of, from 1919 to 1939, 11-16
 - meaning of, 8-10
 - See also Gold; Monetary policy of United States
- Balogh, T., cited, 19
- Banking crisis of 1933
 - and international trade balance, 14
 - effects of, 19
- Barter system of international trade, 169, 174, 186-187
- Belligerents
 - determination of, 98-99
 - trade with, 117-122
- Bidwell, P. W., cited, 67
- quoted, 164
- Bisson, T. A., American Trade and Japanese Aggression, 123-129
- Brand, R. H., cited, 26
- Bridges, Harry, 103
- BUILDING AN AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE, Emory S. Land, 41-48
- Cantilo, José María, quoted, 186
- Capital movements, 13-16, 22-24
- CARSON, JAMES S., Latin American Foreign Trade Characteristics, 155-163
- Cartel, inter-American, see Inter-American trade measures
- Cassel, Gustav, cited, 18
- Chadwick: Admiral, quoted, 185
- Chalmers, Henry, 56
- Chamberlain, Neville, 55
- CLARK, LEW B., Competing for Latin American Markets, 164-172
- Combat area, 94, 98, 104
- COMPETING FOR LATIN AMERICAN MARKETS, Lew B. Clark, 164-172
- Condliffe, J. B., cited, 71
- CULBERTSON, WILLIAM S., Economic Defense of the Americas, 186-196
- CULTURAL RELATIONS WITH LATIN AMERICA, Samuel Guy Inman, 180-185
- Currency blocs, 87-88
- Democracy in Latin America, 182
- Dickens, Paul D., cited, 9, 20
- DIETRICH, ETHEL B., Foreign Trade Blocs, 85-91
- DONALDSON, JOHN, Foreign Exchange and Gold Policies, 18-26
- cited, 18, 26
- Economic blocs, see Foreign Trade Blocs
- ECONOMIC DEFENSE OF THE AMERICAS, William S. Culbertson, 186-196
- ECONOMIC DIVERSIFICATION IN LATIN AMERICA, Frank E. Williams, 147-154
- Einzig, Paul, cited, 19, 26
- Employment in shipping industry
 - affected by Neutrality Act, 107-109
 - affected by sale of American ships, 103
 - extent of, 47
 - working conditions, 47
- Estrada, V. E., quoted, 161-162
- European war (1939)
 - as affecting United States foreign trade, 111-112, 115-116
 - as increasing trade barriers, 55
 - as increasing United States shipping, 102
 - cuts off European markets, 72
 - loss of ships in first ten months, 109
 - outcome of, as affecting
 - Far Eastern trade, 130
 - trade agreements program, 88-91
 - United States shipping, 109-110
 - See also Neutrality Act of 1939
- EVERETT, GUERRA, The Neutrality Act of 1939, 95-101
- Export-Import Bank of Washington
 - basis and terms of loans by, 37-38
 - business features of, 38-40
 - history of, 35-36
 - maximum amount of loans by, 39

- need for, 40
- structure of, 36-37
- sustaining United States trade with China, 134
- EXPORT-IMPORT BANK OPERATIONS, Warren Lee Pierson, 35-40
- Export markets of United States, 6-7, 112-113
 - China, 130-137
 - Europe, 56, 72
 - Japan, 123-129
 - Latin America, 164-179
 - loss of, through European war, 72, 107
 - Manchukuo, 138-143
- Exports
 - export commodities of Latin America, 148-149, 157, 187
 - of war necessities to Japan, 124
 - by commodities, 125-126
 - United States share in, 123-124
 - United States
 - as affected by European war, 111, 120-121
 - commodity distribution of, 113, 118
 - compared with 1914, 113-114, 117
 - geographic distribution of, 112-113, 121
 - world, in relation to production, 73
 - See also* Agricultural exports; Foreign trade of Latin American countries; Foreign trade of United States; Imports
- Foreign exchange
 - control of, as a trade barrier, 66-67, 118-120, 175-176
 - in Latin America
 - lack of, 155, 177
 - may be supplied through
 - capital loans, 161-163, 178
 - development of new industries, 158
 - extension of credits, 159-161
 - increased purchases, 157-158, 177
 - investments, 158-159, 161-163, 178
 - purchases of gold, 178
 - restriction of, 175-176
 - supplied by Scandinavian countries, 157
 - supplied to Japan by United States, 123, 127-128
- FOREIGN EXCHANGE AND GOLD POLICIES, John Donaldson, 18-26
- Foreign investments
 - in Brazil, recommendation for, 158-159
 - needed for development of South America, 161-163, 178
- FOREIGN TRADE BLOCS, Ethel B. Dietrich, 85-91
 - as threatening the trade agreements program, 91
 - conjectural, following present wars, 89-91
 - currency blocs, 87-88
 - growth of, 85-86
 - Ottawa Pacts, 86-87
 - position of the United Kingdom, 87
 - United States attitude toward, 85, 86
- Foreign trade of Latin American countries
 - among themselves, 156
 - as affected by present wars, 156-157, 174-177
 - export commodities, 148-149, 157, 187
 - geographic distribution of, 156-157, 164-172, 187-188
 - historic background of, 155
 - import commodities, 166-167, 170
 - with Belgium, 170-171
 - with Europe, compared with United States, 178
 - with France, 170
 - with Germany, 167-169, 174
 - with Great Britain, compared with United States, 164-167
 - with Italy, 170
 - with Japan, 171-172
 - See also* Foreign trade of United States; Latin America
- Foreign trade of United States
 - as affected by Neutrality Act of 1939, 95-100, 120
 - as affected by present European war, 72, 95-101, 111-112, 115-116, 121
 - commodity characteristics of, 5-6
 - expansion of, 3-4, 12
 - in 1939, by continents, 2
 - increase of, over 1939, 122
 - increased by trade agreements, 74
 - necessity for, 4-5
 - with belligerents
 - compared with 1914, 117-118
 - regulations governing, 98-100
 - with British Empire, 119
 - with China
 - arguments for and against, 132-134
 - characteristics of, 134
 - political importance of, 131-132, 136-137
 - smallness of, 131
 - with Germany, 54-55
 - with Latin America, 155
 - as affected by
 - industrialization, 172
 - the depression, 174
 - the present war, 174-177
 - the World War, 173-174
 - Belgian competition for, 170-171
 - British competition for, 164-167
 - encouragement of, 90-91
 - French competition for, 170
 - German competition for, 167-169, 188
 - Italian competition for, 170
 - Japanese competition for, 171-172
 - with Manchukuo
 - commodity distribution of, 139
 - German competition for, 141-142

- increase of, 138
 - indirect, through Japan, 139-140
 - obstacles to, 140-141
 - United States indifference toward, 143
 - with trade agreement countries, 50
- See also* Agricultural exports; Export markets of United States; Exports; Imports; Shipping, United States
- Fox, A. Manuel, 76
- Franklin, Harry L., cited, 54
- FUNDAMENTAL ASPECTS OF THE TRADE AGREEMENTS PROGRAM, Henry J. Tasca, 65-71
- FUTURE OF AMERICAN TRADE WITH MANCHUKUO, Roy H. Akagi, 138-143
- FUTURE OF THE CHINA TRADE, William W. Lockwood, 130-137
- German-Manchukuo trade agreement, 141-142
- German trade methods, 169, 174
 - as menacing the Western Hemisphere, 186-187, 188
- Gold
 - international movements of, 13-16, 22-24
 - Latin American production of, 178
 - proportion of, in United States, 118
 - world production of, 21
 - See also* Monetary policy of United States
- Goldenweiser, E. A., cited, 26
- Government aid, see Subsidies to agricultural exports
- GRADY, HENRY F., Reciprocal Agreements for Trade Expansion, 58-64
- Graham, Frank D., cited, 26
- HARDING, HAROLD J., Neutrality Restricts the American Merchant Marine, 102-110
- Harris, S. E., cited, 18, 26
- HAS THE TRADE AGREEMENTS PROGRAM SUCCEEDED, Eugene P. Thomas, 72-75
- Hitler, Adolf, 103, 130, 190, 194
- Hu Tun-yuan, cited, 123, 125, 128
- Hull, Cordell, 87, 186, 188, 195
 - quoted, 190
- Imports
 - of Latin American countries, 166-167, 170
 - of United States
 - from Japan, 127-128
 - increased by European war, 111-112
 - sources of, 7-8, 114-115
- INMAN, SAMUEL GUY, Cultural Relations with Latin America, 180-185
- Inter-American trade measures
 - proposed cartel, 189-191
 - a defense measure only, 194, 195-196
 - danger of, 194-195
 - difficulties of, 191-194
 - purpose of, 90-91, 190
 - various, 188-189
- Jefferson, Thomas, quoted, 41
- Johnson, Hugh S., 109
- Johnson, W. J., 36
- JOHNSTON, FRANKLIN, Trade with the Belligerents, 117-122
- Jones, Clarence F., cited, 154
- Jones, Jesse H., 36
- Juárez, Benito P., 182
- Keynes, J. M., cited, 18
- KRAMER, ROLAND L., Trends in United States Foreign Trade, 3-8
- Labor, see Employment in shipping industry
- LAND, EMORY S., Building an American Merchant Marine, 41-48
- Latin America
 - democracy in, 182
 - economic diversification in, 147-154
 - foreign capital as causing friction, 183-184
 - foreign capital needed by, 161-163, 178
 - industrialization of, 150-153, 172
 - menaced by German trade methods, 186-187, 188
 - periods of economic development of, 147-148
 - principal manufactures of, 151-153
 - social reform in, 183
 - types of economic activity in, 149
 - United States defense of, 184-185, 186-196
 - See also* Cultural Relations with Latin America; Foreign trade of Latin American countries
- LATIN AMERICAN FOREIGN TRADE CHARACTERISTICS, James S. Carson, 155-163
- Legislation, see Trade Agreements Act
- Lehmann, Fritz, cited, 26
- LOCKWOOD, WILLIAM W., Future of the China Trade, 130-137
- Longfellow, Henry Wadsworth, 42
- LOWERING OUR TARIFF WALL BY TRADE AGREEMENTS, Raymond B. Stevens, 76-84
- McKinley, William, quoted, 164
- Maffry, August, cited, 9, 20
- Manchukuo-German trade agreement, 141-142
- Maximilian (Ferdinand Maximilian Joseph), 182
- Merchant marine, see Shipping
- Merriam, Carroll B., 36
- Monetary changes
 - currency blocs, 87-88
 - during present war as compared with World War, 10
 - world-wide, 18-19
- Monetary policy of United States, 19-20
 - criticisms of, 23-24
 - defense of, 22-23
 - difficult problem of, 24-25

- effects of, 20
- proposals regarding, 21
- toward China, 135
- See also* Balance of international payments; Gold
- Moore, R. Walton, 36
- MORAN, W. T., Our Latin American Trade Faces Financial Difficulties, 173-179
- Morgenthau, Henry, Jr., cited, 26
- Morrow, Dwight W., 180
- Mulligan, H. A., 36
- National self-sufficiency
 - as causing decline in world trade, 73
 - as causing trade restrictions, 53, 58-59
- NEUTRALITY ACT OF 1939, THE, Guerra Everett, 95-101
 - agencies implementing, 101
 - has little effect on United States foreign trade, 120
 - provisions of, for control of
 - arms traffic, 95-96
 - credits to belligerents, 96-97
 - financial transactions, 97-98
 - United States commerce, 98-100, 103
 - purpose of, 96
 - repeals the arms embargo, 95
- NEUTRALITY RESTRICTS THE AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE, Harold J. Harding, 102-110
- NOBLE, EDWARD J., War Strikes American Foreign Trade, 111-116; 36
 - cited, 17
- OUR LATIN AMERICAN TRADE FACES FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES, W. T. Moran, 173-179
 - Pedro II, 182
 - Perkins, S. E., 98
 - Phelps, Dudley Maynard, cited, 154
 - PIERSON, WARREN LEE, Export-Import Bank Operations, 35-40; 36
 - Poincaré, Raymond, 11
- RECIPROCAL AGREEMENTS FOR TRADE EXPANSION, Henry F. Grady, 58-64
- Reciprocal trade agreements, see Trade agreements
- Roosevelt, Franklin D., 39, 90, 195
 - quoted, 186
- Schacht, Hjalmar, 53
- Schram, Emil, 36
- Seager, Henry Rogers, 51, 56, 57
- Seamen, see Employment in shipping industry
- Shipping, United States
 - a private industry, 45
 - as affected by the Neutrality Act, 98-100, 103-106
 - beginning of, 41
 - need for, 42-44, 45-46, 110
 - present construction of ships
 - allocation of vessels, 43
 - arguments for and against, 45-46
 - description of vessels, 44
 - employment conditions in, 47
 - public support of, 47-48
 - results of, 46-47
 - sale of ships, 102-103
 - status of, 41-42, 102, 106, 107-108, 120-121
 - See also* Employment in shipping industry; Foreign trade of United States
- Sino-Japanese conflict
 - outcome of, as affecting United States trade in the Far East, 89-90, 136
 - United States relation to, 123-129, 135-137
- Snodgrass, Russell L., 36
- Staley, E., cited, 71
- STEVENS, RAYMOND B., Lowering Our Tariff Wall by Trade Agreements, 76-84
- STEVENSON, PERRY J., American Trade Faces Barriers Abroad, 51-57
- Subsidies to agricultural exports, 31-32
- Tariffs
 - as affected by the trade agreements program, 65, 79-83
 - measurement of, 78-79
 - retaliation against United States tariffs, 75
 - See also* Trade barriers
- TASCA, HENRY J., Fundamental Aspects of the Trade Agreements Program, 65-71
 - cited, 66, 67, 70, 87
- TAYLOR, AMOS E., America's International Accounts, 9-17
 - cited, 20
- THOMAS, EUGENE P., Has the Trade Agreements Program Succeeded, 72-75
- Trade agreements
 - as a principle of dealing with Latin America, 188
 - chart of, 50
 - number of, in effect, 58, 65
 - procedure of negotiating, 62-63, 76-78
 - provisions of
 - re trade discrimination, 65-67
 - specific commodity concessions, 67-68
 - various, 67
 - with Czechoslovakia, waived most-favored-nation rights, 86
- Trade Agreements Act
 - nature and purpose of, 58, 59, 73-74, 76, 164
 - provisions of, 59-60
- Trade agreements organization, structure and functions of, 60-61
- Trade agreements program
 - as affected by outcome of present wars, 88-91

- as affecting United States tariffs, 65, 79-83
- excellence of, 64, 70, 84
- future of, 70-71, 75, 85, 91
- in relation to agricultural programs, 32-34
- obstacles to success of, 68-70
- principles of, 85
- results of, 74-75
- threatened by economic blocs, 91
- Trade barriers
 - as affected by present wars, 55, 56, 140-141
 - causes of, 51, 53, 59
 - erected by Manchukuo, 140-141
 - exchange controls, 66-67, 118-120, 175-176
 - in democracies, 52-53
 - in totalitarian states, 53-54
 - increase of, since World War, 51, 58
 - quantitative controls, 65-66
 - reduced by trade agreements, 74-75
 - temporary character of war measures, 55, 140-141
- See also* Foreign Trade Blocs; Tariffs
- TRADE WITH THE BELLIGERENTS, Franklin Johnston, 117-122
- TRENDS IN UNITED STATES FOREIGN TRADE, Roland L. Kramer, 3-8
- Vandenberg, A. H., 26
- Wagner, Robert F., 26
 - cited, 25
- Wallace, Henry A., cited, 189
- War, see European war (1939); Sino-Japanese conflict
- WAR STRIKES AMERICAN FOREIGN TRADE, Edward J. Noble, 111-116
- WHEELER, L. A., The American Farmer Looks Abroad, 27-34; 36
- White, Harry D., 36
- Whittlesey, Charles R., cited, 18, 26
- WILLIAMS, FRANK E., Economic Diversification in Latin America, 147-154
- World monetary changes, 18-19
- World trade
 - as affected by rearmament policies, 73
 - reduced by autarchic trend, 73
- Wythe, George, cited, 154
 - quoted, 153
- Zones of United States commerce, 94, 98-100

ance

Ed-

ooks

ifica-

-100